Experience

○ 2019 - 2020

Booking.com, Manchester

Customer Service Advisor

As a bilingual customer service agent, I provided exceptional customer service to Spanish and English-speaking customers regarding car rentals through inbound calls, live chat, and emails. I handled a high volume of inquiries, resolved customer issues and complaints, and ensured customer satisfaction while meeting individual and team performance metrics. Additionally, I maintained a high level of product knowledge, collaborated with other departments, and identified opportunities for process improvement.

○ 2021 - 2022

Ventrica, Remote

Customer Service Advisor

As a bilingual customer service agent, I provided excellent customer service to Spanish and English-speaking customers across multiple campaigns, handling inquiries and complaints through various channels. I demonstrated a deep understanding of each campaign's products or services, policies, and procedures, achieved individual and team targets, and collaborated with team members and management to identify areas for improvement. Additionally, I attended regular training sessions to stay updated on the latest information and techniques, and performed any other related duties as assigned.

○ 2022 - 2023

Phillips & Cohen, Manchester, Hybrid

Estate Care Specialist

As an Estate Care Specialist at Phillips & Cohen Associates, I was responsible for providing exceptional customer service by liaising with customers and clients to manage estate accounts. This included maintaining accurate account information, achieving internal call quality expectations and clear key performance indicators, and operating compliantly within clearly defined guidelines to ensure regulatory compliance and prevent any potential legal or financial risks. I demonstrated strong communication skills, attention to detail, and the ability to work independently while delivering high-quality results.
